

Manufacturing Using Sustainable Chemistry

Meeting October 7th 2010

King's Manor, York

Who should attend?

Chemical companies who are looking to develop new supply chain partnerships and are moving into greener product markets. These sectors include renewable feedstock suppliers, HPC, pharmaceuticals, paint & surface coatings, adhesives and fabric & furnishing producers.

Researchers in the field of green & sustainable chemistry and sustainable technology will also find it of interest.

Why attend?

This meeting aims to bring together the members of the Chemical Industry Association with the diverse sectorial contacts of the Green Chemistry Centre of Excellence so as to help create new green and sustainable product supply chains.

Lectures and workshops will focus on case studies of commercialised greener products and processes, green chemical technologies and emerging green & sustainable product supply chains.
